Opening Message- October 2021

Dear Parents,

After our warm greetings,

Reading is the most important skill students learn at school, you, as guardians, can help in developing this vital skill during your children academic journey.

- It is very important to make your children aware that reading is essential in their life wherever they go in this world. When you accompany your children for shopping or when you cross a street, look at the posters and discuss its content and what it means.

- Ensure to direct your children attention to newspapers and magazines of all kinds, to advertisements and road signs, recipes, etc., at home and outside.
- Visit bookstores or book fairs and make sure to establish library at home, participate with your children in selecting book titles and topics.
- Allocate time to read books with your children; and its preferable to read in a quiet corner in the house.
- Encourage your children to read aloud, do not ignore the drawings and images, check them while reading, comment on them, review its content together after finishing reading the book, ask various questions, in this way you help your children to enjoy reading.

Use with your children the strategies of anticipation and prediction, which are:

- Think before reading: Ask questions after viewing the images of the story cover or watch a short film about the same topic.
- Anticipate and predict: What he predicts as a result of the questions that were asked to him and the stimuli that he was exposed to, such as: Guess what is the story about?
- Read for a purpose: He reads now for a purpose, Are his predictions correct?
- He thinks after reading: This is by asking question: Do you want to know more? What do you want to know more about.....? What do you change in the events of the story if you were the writer?
- You can help also by encouraging your children to read, and make it as part of their day-to-day activities by adopting a variety of effective methods such as, read for them poetry, or traditional stories, or legend and myth stories, play with them cross-word games, do not forget to give them books on happy occasions.
- All these methods instill the love of reading, keep in mind the child who reads outperforms his peers and learns skills that benefit him all through his life. Reading is a fundamental factor in the growth and development of the child's capabilities, which help in forming his memory and accordingly building up his personality.
- We wish you and your children more enjoyable reading time.

Best Wishes,

Hanadi Mustafa

The Islamic Studies Departments at Al Adar Education have launched the fourth session of Al Dar Quran competition under the slogan (Read, Raise and Recite)

Our students of all age groups from KG2 ( KG1) to y13(G12) can participate in the competition. The results will be announced after the holy month of Ramadan. The jury has set standardized criteria to select the winners.
